

Temples of Satan Works of Theism and Satanism.

The works which we offer to the public must not be confused with a collection of reveries and errors to which their authors have tried to give credence by announcing supernatural feats; which the credulous and the ignorant seized with glowing eye sockets and contemptuous hearts.

Satan being simply a title gleaned by man and woman from folklore, we know Satan as our Father, our Master and our Deity to find ourselves any other way is considered blasphemous to whom we really know his name and speak loudly in our rituals and privacy that makes us strong.

However one must prepare properly for rituals and invocations, leadership is not from the teacher but from the student, Satan or whatever name you prefer doesn't require rituals and invocations made by man for man or woman for woman, he requires simple dedication and devotion and through such a simple thing we grasp his infernal power.

Prayers, incantations and invocations work from the student, something teachers of the Occult seem to miss, passing out one diatribe after another, this is apparent in the works of other Theistic Groups and Traditional Groups whose leadership hand out regurgitated materials not seeing the basis of these works are not even related closely to reality.

Works gleaned from Crowley or even Agrippa ring with nothing more than cultism, La Vey the Master Plagiarizer and "Sideshow Satanist" produced nothing, the powerful works are in the head and lie in your pen adept, I can provide templates but you are needed to fill in the blanks, and create your own diabolical, defiling or evil environment, one which you serve Satan or many other names that history has given our Master.

Often times we are pushed and prodded in Satanism to take the pill or read the doctrine, all the while we feel Satan inside us and hear voices telling us to stay away from the doctrines and drink water instead of Koolaide©.

As Theistic Satanists we require no mortal to tell us how to worship, we just require the desire to perform at a level second to none, however we have numerous articles, and supporting documents to explain or guide us, as we gather wisdom.

Simplicity is taking the best of others and offering it up for yourself, to Satan and finding his wisdom ringing through the night or remaining silence in the ignorance of others works.

Many invocations, and incantations are in PDF everywhere on the Internet but I will admit today that Crowley's system of magic was flawed and borderline fake, the ideologies he gleaned from Egyptian Lore fell short of what a Real Satanist could accomplish by creation of their own works, not copied from simpletons and crude civilizations, should certain magic have been gleaned from Sumeria perhaps then it could have been more applied and useful, so we persist onward into a form of magic that stems from the individual acts not the words or messiahs that were born to teach confusing and incoherent lines of thought.

Enochian calls and strange angelic demon summoning, Aeon's and sinister thoughts are useless against the way most practiced magic once in history, man and woman designed and performed rituals and invocations designed by themselves for their personal relationship with their God or Satan whichever fitted the times more appropriately.

Theistic Satanism is about individual and devotion something no teacher or messiah could ever hope to provide and with such we journey hand in hand, male and female in a war against those who attempt to destroy our very essence and our deity through confusion and diatribe, with an appearance of nothing but wanting to sell another book or pamphlet.

Books are important and allow one to gather thoughts in order to place a system of magic into work for oneself, examples could be reading and taking notes then assembling a book that most matches the operators personal style of magic, not provided by someone who attempts to provide nothing more than useless and incoherent psycho babble.

Finding oneself immersed with others who worship Atheism in a Halloween Costume bring the Theistic Satanist no satisfaction other than useless mind sex that is really more detrimental for oneself, than any Christian diatribe or doctrine being rammed forward.

The Church of Satan damaged our religion, and now they cannot understand why the hatred and resolve that we have for them, the contempt for falsehood, because we know dress up Satan in a human suit is nothing more than a Atheistic variation sold to the masses seeking sinister or diabolic nothing.

Want to see sinister or evil, or diabolical come forward in Theistic Satanism and see the ones who will really inherit the Earth due in part to our bravery and unwavering belief in a deity and servitude not as slaves to some incoherent set of rules or some man or woman written set of "folkloric" principles, but real ideologies from the hands and mind of the operator Satanist himself or herself.
